

DO YOU THINK SOMEONE IS USING THE “WRONG” BATHROOM?

People express their gender in many ways, and no one must conform to a stereotype or express their gender in a specific way to use a specific bathroom. An individual's gender identification is nobody's business but their own.

PLEASE DON'T:

-  Stare at them
-  Confront them
-  Talk about them to others

PLEASE DO:

-  Let them pee in peace!
-  Respect their right to privacy / space
-  Respect their gender identity

If you feel like you see someone is being harassed or made to feel unsafe #SpeakOut. If you can, support them by asking if they are okay and affirming that this is a safe space.

Harassment or violence (both physical and verbal) against trans or non-binary people in any form is not tolerated and can be reported to the university or police via the SRC Advice Service: advice@src.gla.ac.uk

Scan to be taken to the university's reporting page.